Privacy notice

SCU is requesting the information on this form to manage all aspects of your employment with the University, to facilitate communication with you and to enable the University to meet its reporting requirements to relevant government agencies. If you have prior service with other Australian Universities, the information you provide will be used to confirm your prior service with those Universities. We may also use details such as your name, position title, qualifications, work location and email address in University publications and on the University website.

During your employment the University may provide information relating to your salary and appointment to your superannuation fund. If you have a workers' compensation claim with the University, details relating to that claim will also be provided to the University's insurer to enable your claim to be assessed.

When storing your information electronically, SCU may disclose personal information to overseas recipients by virtue of its cloud computing arrangements. SCU's 'cloud' servers are located in Hong Kong, Singapore and Ireland and SCU is reasonably satisfied that these countries have similar privacy protections to those afforded under Australian law. SCU will not disclose personal information to anybody else unless required to do so by law – for example if the information is needed in an emergency or for law enforcement purposes.

Providing us with the requested information is not required by law. However, it is required to facilitate your employment.

Access to personal information may be requested at any time (to access or update personal information, or for more information on the privacy obligations, speak to our Privacy Contact Officer or email privacy@scu.edu.au). A copy of the University's Privacy Management Plan is available at: <http://policies.scu.edu.au/view.current.php?id=00018>.
