The sooner you start preparing for your career, the better your chance of success. The SCU online Career Development Program can help with five streams of online modules.

You can access these resources on MySCU. Visit: learn.scu.edu.au at any stage of your studies. These resources will help you make connections between your studies and future career options. They will also help you:

- Build self-awareness
- Discover career possibilities
- Make sound course and career choices
- Successfully transition to being a student and then a graduate
- Take charge of your career

Mix and match streams or modules to suit your learning stage.

The Career Development Program also features many useful resources such as the Career FAQs booklets and access to online self-assessment tools to help you throughout your studies. Check it out today!

We offer a comprehensive range of professional services including:

- Career counselling for current and prospective students
- Vocational guidance and assessment
- Workshops, events and graduate recruitment
- Written job application reviews
- Career resources and access to the online Career Development Program
- CareerHub – online jobs portal for vacancies, career event bookings, and resources
